The Peruvian Q'ero, lightworkers of the Andes, have shared energetic processes that clear an individual's body, mind and soul of heavy energies. Nine rites are transmitted during the class; they offer protection, stimulate intuition, release heavy energies from the body and mind, and align soul with it's higher purpose.

Christine was given these rites by the Q'ero three times and after the last one in Peru, she was told to return to North America and share them. She's been doing that for 9 years and sees positive and powerful shifts in people who have received them.

The Munay-Ki is especially helpful in these challenging times of great change. The rites help us to align with our soul's journey and move forward fearlessly with integrity towards whom we are becoming. They offer us the opportunity to clear what no longer serves us and bring into our lives energies that awaken our potential as beings of light and love.

Comments from people who have taken the class: “Munay Ki opened up a great deal of deep and abiding healing.” - “Thank you once again for a deeply healing weekend. I’ve been feeling great since the workshop, enjoying a sense of feeling more at home in my body, and in the world.” - “I can truly say this class was very powerful and moving! I wish I could put it into words, but its too big!!”

Join Rekha and Christine to receive these amazing energies. The class includes the rites, exercises, and meditations . . . all in an interactive and safe group setting.

The Q'ero tell us that the “Real World” is both the seen and the unseen
